City of music and sports

Manchester's glittering music history has seen the likes of artists such as Oasis, Robbie Williams, Chemical Brothers and New Order, to name but a few. This hub of entertainment also boasts an abundance of theaters, galleries, and for sports fans plenty of Manchester United FC and Manchester City football games. Hit the Northern Quarter, a best-kept secret favored by the university crowd, teeming with shops, galleries and cafes. The Peak District and Pennine Hills are invitingly close by, so take to the hills for walking, climbing and biking, just a half-hour drive away.
