EF International School of English

Washington, D.C.

Study English at the heart of American culture and you'll enjoy magnificent arts, millions of theaters and music alongside monuments, memorials and museums. Your year abroad awaits at our EF school near Georgetown University.

Capital full of culture

Explore Washington, D.C. – the metropolitan hub of American culture and an international powerhouse! At any given time, in any given year, so much is happening in the U.S.'s capital city you'll always have something new and exciting in your planner. From free events at the Kennedy Center to live jazz at Blues Alley to hip hop and rock at the 9:30 Club, DC's nightlife can satisfy the most finicky socialite. Sports fanatics can watch the Redskins from a collegial Georgetown bar, catch the Mystics shoot hoops at the MCI Center, or be a part of a roaring crowd at a DC United soccer game.

International English studies

Our newest US school is centrally located near Georgetown University in one of Washington's most beloved areas among students and prominent D.C. citizens alike. You'll find state-of-the-art learning facilities, spacious classrooms and a comfortable student lounge in our renovated school. We offer preparation for the internationally recognized TOEFL exam, as well as a wide range of special interest classes including international relations and American culture. Washington teems with things to do – so when classes end for the day the fun is just beginning!
