Melbourne

Multicultural Melbourne with more than three million people is Australia's second largest city. Join EF for an unforgettable course and find out why this amazing city is so passionate about sports, fashion trends and everything in between!

Sporty and artsy all in one

Located in the southeastern corner of Australia, Melbourne is known for its inspiring cultural life, passion for sports, picturesque parks, nearby beaches, and unique neighborhoods. The mild climate encourages outdoor activities from rollerblading to tennis year-round. For those looking for excitement, look no further than the frenzied popularity of sports events like the Grand Prix, or the Australian Tennis Open. For relaxing head to the Southbank promenade, with its riverside setting and fantastic views of the city skyline – a great place to sit in a trendy cafe to watch people.

Stylish school in the downtown

Upgrade your English with EF Melbourne, located in the Central Business District with everything from cinemas and shopping to sports facilities at your disposal. As a student at our newest school Down Under, you'll appreciate the excellent facilities including state-of-the-art classrooms designed to complement our communicative approach. Additionally, two excellent iLabs are available for self-study, along with a spacious student lounge where you'll often find our students sitting at their laptops taking advantage of the school's wireless Internet access.

The Great Ocean Road is famous for its surf beaches and wild coastlines.
